

“Employ Your Ability 2”

International training course

Torosgyugh, Armenia

10-17 June, 2017

Practical Information

1. General Information about the TC

Gyumri “Youth Initiative Centre” NGO from Armenia and Bremanger kommune from Norway will host 7-days international training course aiming at empowering youth workers and leaders from Programme countries and Eastern Europe and Caucasus countries to support the employability of young people they work with, especially those from vulnerable backgrounds and with fewer opportunities.

Youth unemployment is a major challenge which young people are facing all round Europe and the world. To address this concern, “Employ Your Ability 2” training course was developed, which aims at empowering youth workers and leaders from Programme countries and Eastern Europe and Caucasus countries to support the employability of young people they work with, especially those from vulnerable backgrounds. The TC will provide participants with skills and knowledge on assisting the unemployed young people to connect to the job market through investigating various tools for providing young people with relevant information and learning opportunities. Addressing such important topic as youth employment we intend to encourage conscious application of media and communication tools: with the growing importance of information exchange and usage in this dynamically developing world.

Aim: To empower youth workers and leaders from Programme countries and Eastern Europe and Caucasus countries supporting the employability of young people they work with, especially those from vulnerable backgrounds and with fewer opportunities.
